Casey, I remember a time where you were very young, playing in the snow, sledding with my daughter. There is this excitement kids get when everything is white from the snow, they are free from school and they are barreling down the hill next to our houses! You played for hours with my daughter, Nadya when you come to your grandmas with those little dollhouses. You shared them always with Nadya until you grew too old for dollhouses. I know you both really enjoyed that time you had together. I remember seeing you sitting outside your grandmothers house on the stoop, we would chat sometimes. You were older and so mature. I watched you grow up and love on your niece and nephew who gave you so much joy.

Casey you were and in my heart still are a beautiful person. I remember the Thanksgiving you and Kelley came over. I was yelling stop jumping on the couch. It was really funny when I thought about it. I just didn't want you to get hurt. You always made me smile. Love the pictures of you with your different lipsticks and eye colors. But you have beautiful eyes you really didn't need any makeup. You were loved my so many people. I remember some of the private texts we had they will always be with me. Heaven has gained another Angel. R.I.P. Honey until I see you again.

You were a beautiful person inside and out. You made me smile everytime you tried on some new makeup. it was wonderful to see all the different colors of lipstick, eyes and face. I will remember you as a gentle soul who loved life. You were such a blessing to whomever knew you. Heaven has gained another angel in Heaven and I am sure it was a great reunion with your husband and family that have gone on before. Love and peace and eternal light in heaven. You will be missed but more than that your memory will live on. Sincere condolences to the family.
