Obituary

Mr. Pedro Amilcar Claros, Sr., 70, of Boyds, Maryland, passed away on May 8, 2022, at Shady Grove Medical Center. Pedro was born February 19, 1952, to the late Felix and Rosa Lila Claros in San Agustin, Usulután, El Salvador. In 1971, he decided to come to the U.S. and lived in Los Angeles, California for a few years. During this time, he met his loving wife, Mirian Claros at a family friends' gathering. They moved to New Jersey in 1975 where they married and had a beautiful baby girl on November 17, 1975. They later moved to Maryland and eight years later, they had a handsome baby boy on March 29, 1983. Pedro worked as a handyman throughout his life and eventually transitioned into an Inventory Clerk for an aerospace company. Even though he no longer worked as a handyman, he still helped family and friends with any household issues. He had a love for his family and enjoyed the times he sporadically woke them at 5AM to say, "ok if you want to go to the beach with me get ready." Making them all run around last minute, which his children enjoyed, wife not so much. Pedro also had a love for motorcycles. He would take long rides and simply enjoyed the fresh air.

In addition to his loving wife, Mirian Claros, Pedro is survived by his brother Vicente Claros, daughter Lila Escobar, son Pedro Claros, Jr., grandchildren Cristal Escobar, Cailey Escobar, Victor Claros, Olivia Claros, son-in-law Jorge Escobar, daughter-in-law Ivon Claros, several nieces and nephews who he considered as his own children, cousins, other relatives, and many special friends. (Family pets: Daisy, Dunkin, and Peanut).
