Obituary

Janet Louise (Stull) Barbour, 65, of Frederick, left this world on Sunday, December 12, 2021, with her devoted husband, Barney by her side. She was a caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend.

Janet was born September 13, 1956, in Frederick to Relsey and Mayetta Stull.

Her battle with serious medical issues in recent years showed her courage in facing life challenges with a smile. Despite the pain, Janet came out a hero and stayed strong until the end. She worked as a bookkeeper for the family business. Janet loved dogs - especially Pomeranians. She was an avid collector of Barbies, and also enjoyed riding dirt bikes and 4-wheeling. Most of all, she enjoyed being around her grandsons.

In addition to her father, Janet was preceded in death by her daughter, Kelly Ann.

She is survived by her loving husband of 46 years, Barney; her mother, Mayetta; her sister, Irene and husband Larry Smith of Sabillasville; her daughter, Cindy and husband Scott Markus; grandsons, Trenton and Braylen all of Boonsboro; and nephew Dale Smith of Sabillasville. She was thankful for her lifelong friend, Maudeva Frye of Thurmont through the good and bad times; also a dear friend Gwen Putman of Frederick. Janet was also grateful for her host of other family and friends that made her life one of adventure, happiness, and joy.
