O bituary

On November 7th, 2021, an angel departed the earth, as the Lord welcomed home Patricia Mary Khoury. Born March 1, 1931; she graced the Earth for 90 years. Survived by her beloved spouse Assad S. Khoury, two children, Jamila and Shahady and grandson Andrew Coburn, she will be greatly missed and fondly recalled.

Born in Canada, Patricia lost her parents in a train accident early in life. Adopted by the conductor Herbert Counihan; she spent her formative years in Toronto at Rosary Hall Convent. In 1952 Patricia took a job in the Toronto Hospital and there, met a young physician resident Assad Khoury. She traveled to Beirut Lebanon in 1956 to join her beau and they were married on January 26, 1957.

The couple moved to the U.S. in 1958, settling first in Virginia and then in Maryland. Patricia will be remembered for her great creativity in all types of home crafts, sewing, decorating, and cooking. She learned all the Middle Eastern recipes from her husband's mother and became an expert on the favorites. Patricia ran multiple households and a working farm in Louisa, Virginia where she could indulge her love of animals and the outdoors.
