Obituary

Carol Joan Miles, of Gaithersburg, Maryland, passed away peacefully October 23, 2020 at her home in Gaithersburg, Maryland. She was born on October 28, 1939 to Robert and Alice Worsham, in Washington, D.C. She was the wife of James “Jim” Logan Miles, Sr. who preceded her death in 2018 after 59 years of marriage.

Joan is survived by her son, James, Jr., and her daughters Terri Ann Miles and Kimberley Marie Thornton. She was a loving grandmother to seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, all of whom she loved, supported and touched during her life.

Joan was an extraordinary mother and wife, and she served the Federal Government as a contracts officer for more than 20 years. She was a woman of many skills and talents who tirelessly never hesitated to help anyone and cherished her family above all else. She will be greatly missed.

The family wishes to extend their gratitude for the loving care and support of Montgomery Hospice, the Visiting Angels staff and Walnut Hill neighbors. To sign the online guestbook and leave condolences go to: www.resthaven.us

Joan was just like an extended family member here at The JBiT Ranch. I've never seen her without a kind smile or a kind word, and in the over 18 years we were friends she never seemed to age a day. We know Heaven rejoiced upon her arrival, but she will be dearly missed here.

Terri, Jim and Kim, you all are in my thoughts during this time. I remember after I started to date Terri, I found out one of my mom's best friends. "Aunt Zelda" worked with your mom at Parklawn, and I knew I better be on my best behavior. Your parents always were kind and warm to me. May we all have great memories of your parents.
