Obituary

Mr. Keith Odie Lipscomb, 57, of Thurmont, passed away on February 9, 2020 at Kline Hospice House. He was the loving husband of Patricia Ann Lipscomb, whom he married March 11, 1984.

Born in Laurel, MD, Keith was the son of Irma Sue Lipscomb of Abingdon, MD and the late Roy O. Lipscomb. Keith earned his Associate of Arts in Secondary Education from Prince George's Community College and obtained a professional cooking certification from BICC, and he received his MBA in Human Resources Management in 2002. Mr. Lipscomb was a teacher in Frederick County Public Schools for many years, and also taught online with Strayer University.

Keith had many interests including Nature, all kinds of music, history and the Civil War, target shooting, culinary arts, and fishing. Keith arranged for Trout in the Classroom where he taught at Middletown Middle School. He grew his Trout Club each year until they finally needed two school buses for the field trip to release trout into the stream. Keith loved teaching his students, and said he thought of them as friends.

In addition to his loving wife, Patricia, and his mother, Irma, Mr. Lipscomb is survived by five children, Jessica Lipscomb, Jennifer Lipscomb-Huntley, Stephanie Lipscomb, Christopher Lipscomb, and Benjamin Lipscomb; a sister, Karen West; a brother, Kevin Lipscomb, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and other relatives.

Visitation will be held from 1 – 2 PM on Saturday, February 15th at Resthaven Funeral Home, 9501 Catoctin Mountain Hwy. in Frederick, where a funeral service will begin at 2:00 PM. Interment following the funeral will be private; floral tributes are welcome. Remembrances may be left online at www.resthaven.us.

Welcome to LipscombLand!! am always inspired by the words of the late Rita Pierson. "Every child deserves a champion—an adult who will never give up on them, who understands the power of connection and insists that they become the best that they can possibly be." I passionately celebrate the champions who make an impact on my children. I see their hard work, their belief and their dedication -every single day. It's inspiring, it's unforgettable and it's their legacy. Nate and Liam had a champion. His name was Mr. Lipscomb. His classroom was called-LipscombLand. He was really cool and often the subject of dinner-table talk. The stories, animated by the boys, left us laughing, imagining, and feeling good. It is a great feeling to know that the boys are building character through this teacher-this character-Mr. Lipscomb. I had the privilege of taking a leadership course at Hood College with the famous Mr. Lipscomb. He had a quiet presence, but man, when he said something-it was powerful. His word-choice was purposeful and you could sense that his passion was fueled by his belief in students. Thank you, Mr. Lipscomb. Your kids knew that LipscombLand was a great place to be!Liam: My best memory is how he would say hi to everyone in the hallways saying things like howdy buckaroo and stuff of the sort. He was just such a happy guy.Nate: On Friday's we would scream loudly..."It's Friday!" My best memory is probably that he actually put an effort in to make our class fun and engaging. He always was in a good mood, and put our class in a good mood when we came in. He fostered an interest in the subject for me and made my day that much brighter. I'm just so sad that he's gone.Sam: I saw him and he seemed really nice
