Obituary

Carol Ruth Cevario, 77, of Thurmont, passed away on July 28, 2018 at FMH. She was the loving wife of the late Stanley Cevario for 54 years. Ruth was born in Pennsylvania on May 14, 1941 to Gladys Mull of Florida and the late Donald R. Crawford. After moving to Maryland she attended the Robert Morris Business School class of 1960, majoring in Secretarial Studies. She worked for the Federal Government before taking time off to raise her children, returning to work in 1975 until she retired. Family, both immediate and extended, was the most important thing in Ruth's life, and she loved and supported them in everything they did. In addition to her mother, she is survived by her three children, Michael Alan Cevario (Jenny) of Thurmont, Amy Beth Cevario (Norman Lester) of Bethesda, and Joseph Dean Cevario (Dawn) of Thurmont; five grandchildren, Katherine Elizabeth Lester, Joshua Dean Cevario, Nicole Ann Cevario, Lillian Grace Lester, and Dylan Michael Cevario; brother, Ken Crawford (Christine) of Missouri and sisters, Lois Cunningham (Jim) of Pennsylvania and Lynn Cook (Les) of Maryland, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and other relatives. At Mrs. Cevario's request, no formal service will be held. An informal commemorative gathering in her honor will take place in the near future. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a charity of one's choice. To sign the online guestbook and leave condolences go to www.resthaven.us.

To Ruth's Family, Your mom and dad were friends of ours for many years. Your dad golfed with my husband many times and they shared many adventures together. Your mom and I both worked at Fort Detrick and were good friends. We are so glad that both of your parents were a part of our lives. Hopefully, the many memories you have of your mom will help during the sad times.
