So fortunate to have Uncle Freddy as a huge part of my life. He was always supportive of our family and was truly interested in everyone he met. They broke the mold when Freddy was born. We will always feel the void of where you should be, but will smile with the memories.

Carol, Tracy, Jill and family - I was so saddened to hear the news of Freddie's passing. In all our encounters with Freddie over the years, he was always so friendly and genuinely interested in what you had to say. You could tell that he never met a stranger. He embraced the differences in our families and traditions and enjoyed himself no matter what event or celebration. He will be missed. I hope you'll find comfort in knowing that Freddie touched so many with his kindness and lived a positive life until the end. Sending our love and prayers from Southern Maryland.
