Obituary

Kenneth Elwood Lawson, 82, of Ijamsville, Maryland, passed away on January 1, 2018. He was the loving husband of Patricia Ann Lawson for over 61 years. Born July 5, 1935, Ken, as he was called by all his family members and friends, was the son of the late Perry and Gladys Lawson. Ken was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and he was a great friend to many. Ken loved to build things. He was a custom home builder for much of his life, and he built many beautiful custom homes in the Montgomery County area of Maryland. He was an accomplished master craftsman in his later career with the City of Frederick Parks and Recreation Department. His hands built many of Frederick County's public spaces, pavilions, and county office structures. For all his lifetime, even in his later years, one of his fondest passions was caring for his home, especially the outside and yard. Everything he cared for and looked after was just so. Ken grew up in a world of farms and agriculture. He was highly interested all his life in stock car racing, and he was a NASCAR fan. He also loved country music. One of his favorite songs was one that became popular in 1982, Wind Beneath My Wings. That song, Ken said, always expressed how he felt about his beloved wife, Patricia. Ken was a loyal and baptized member of the Monocacy Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. His last words showed his confidence in the resurrection hope that he cherished: "Help me make it to the new system" he asked, referring to God's promise of a resurrection into a peaceful, paradise earth. Pat watched him fall into a deep sleep with a happy smile on his face, and he quietly expired mere hours later. Being predeceased by his brother, Rudy Lawson, his beloved sister, Shirley Weller, and his 16-year-old grandson, Jagger Ezra Lawson; he is survived by his wife, Patricia, and his children: Theresa Halsey and husband Kevin of Brownsboro, Texas; Tamara Lawson of Ellijay, Georgia; Kevin Lawson and wife Gina of Urbana Villages; Kris Lawson of Ijamsville; and Keith

Our love and prayers continue with you, Pat, and all your family during this sad time. We will miss Ken, but we know that our wait to see him, talk to him, laugh with him, and spend time together will be brief compared to the wonderful joy we'll all feel when we are reunited. For the time until then, we pray that Jehovah will continue to comfort you and your loved ones and ease your grief. Much love, Erika and Brian Straesser

Dear Pat, Ron and I want to express our sorrow to you and for you and your family's loss of Ken. Ron just lost his mother of 94 yrs in December. We were glad to see you two a couple of years ago (since we've been out of the area in WV helping with Ron's mom) at the KH one day. Interestingly, it was my Dad(93) who read about Ken's passing. He knew Ken's parents as Jehovah's Witnesses. Jehovah's name has been made known through your family for many, many years in the area! May Jehovah comfort you at this time, an beyond.
