I got to know Summer and her mother through my work at school with her daughter, Kaileigh, and then I went on to work with Jason's(II) class as well. Words can not express how sorry I am for your loss. While I can not attend the service tomorrow, I wanted you and the rest of the family to know you all are in my thoughts and prayers.

Summer, my heart is absolutely broken and filled with a pain that is beyond mere words. All I know, is that I gave birth to a beautiful baby girl almost 39 years ago who I had only wished the best for, and wanted to see grow up to be healthy and happy in life. Now, you're gone forever and I am truly devastated. RIP, Sweet Child O' Mine. I will never stop loving you....Mom

She was one of my only friends I had in Maryland. Even though I moved back to my home state we still kept contact. I am going to miss her. I wish Maryland wasn't so far away so I could say my good byes. She was so sweet and kind. I can still hear her laughing at my corny jokes. I am going to miss you Summer. The kids said they will miss their sunshine. I still feel like this is a bad dream. I just talked to you. Fly high beautiful and watch over my family!! I love you my friend!

There are no words that could comfort your family and time will not fade the loss. Remember the good times, her smile, her laugh, her caring. Just know only God can really understand what you are going through. Just cling to Jesus and never let go.
