I am extremely sad to read that Jerry has passed. It has been years since I have seen him, but I hold fondly my sweet memories of growing up next door to the Yonetz family. I pray for his loved ones to have the peace of God and the comfort from knowing that you will be reunited once again. Carol, I know you will have a ton of memories to get you through the tough times ahead. Hold fast to them. My prayers go up for you and your family.
