Maria Delacruz was called home on November 26, 2016. She was known by many names, mainly Ama and Mama. Maria led a life strong in the faith of God. She enjoyed going to church any chance she had. Maria Loved children, she raised many including her own ten, and two grandchildren. Maria was born March 27, 1930 and her early life was spent in Colombia. She loved it there! She always had stories about her sisters Barbara, Librada, Victoria and her brother Jose. She was a trapeze artist at a young age and throughout her early teen years. She did various stunts and shows. In Maria's late 70's she was diagnosed with early stages of Dementia. She continued to stay active by vacationing with family, and knitting beautiful blankets.
