Pop...my heart hurts and my eyes flood each day without you. I know you are happy with God, most likely building our family kingdom. You are my most treasured love. I am so thankful for so many wonderful years with you! I could never ask for a better man, father, role model or grandfather! Thank you for making a little girls day each and every time you knocked at my door! Your smile is everlasting. Your legacy lives forever with all of us. I can't wait to see you again. The reunion will unforgettable...kind of like our first connection on 11-23-1968! I love you so much Pop!!

He was a sweet man, with a smile on his face always. I'll always remember the times he would stop by mama's after work and have coffee to just say hello and chat. He would always laugh and joke. He will be missed by many and will live forever in so many hearts.
