We will always be thankful for the memories we have of Sandy-her wonderful attitude and willingness to help in any situation. Her generous spirit, especially at Christmas time, she always remembered everyone in our family with gifts, picked out with care for each one of us. I remember she and her Mom coming to our ladies crafting times, how she would burn herself on the glue gun every time, and laugh at herself for doing it! We appreciated her work with the kids and how she always put in 100% to make it great and fun! She was so gracious and loving to her parents and sacrificed much to take care of them well. We are thankful that she is safe in the arms of Jesus and that she will be having all new adventures on streets of gold!! She will be remembered with fondness always. Our best to your family as you deal with her loss, we are praying for God's comfort to all of you. Pastor & Becky Sargent, Frederick Alliance Church
