Obituary

Sandra Lee Gaussman, beloved wife for 60 years to Hans Gerhard Gaussman died on October 7, 2022 in Washington, D.C. Loving and devoted mother of Ingrid Yates and Kirsten Dangler. Sandra is the adoring grandmother of Mark, Nathan and Hunter Yates, Galen O'Driscoll. She is also survived by her brother Skip Rollin.

Sandra enjoyed baking for her family, Knitting and sewing, crafting and cooking and was passionate about her love of music, especially her vocal stylings and organ accompaniment.

When not doting on her own family, she took time to volunteer as a Girls Scouts of America troop leader as well as a Boys Scouts cub pack den mother.

Services and interment are to be privately held at her request.

For those desiring, contributions may be made in lieu of flowers to any of her favorite charities; The American Cancer Society, Wounded Warrior Project, Tunnels to Towers and the Alzheimer's Association

To send flowers to the family, please visit our floral store.
