It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Mark James Dagro, a loving son, devoted father, and cherished friend. Mark departed this world on June 8, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of kindness, compassion, and unforgettable memories.

Born on July 6, 1955, in Brooklyn, New York, Mark was the beloved son of Frances Mary Dagro and the late James John Dagro. He grew up in a close-knit family along with his sister Karen Lario, where he learned the values of hard work, integrity, and unconditional love. Mark's love for his family was evident throughout his life, and his presence will be deeply missed.

Mark is survived by his two children, James Mark Dagro and Amy Marie Dagro, and his granddaughter Ariane Mallick. As parents, Mark and Maria Antonieta Dagro instilled in their children the importance of education, empathy, and perseverance. Mark's love for his children knew no bounds, and he took great pride in witnessing their accomplishments and guiding them through life's challenges. His impact as a father will forever be cherished.

Mark had a passion for his hobbies which included bird watching, reading comic books, cheering for the New York Yankees and playing cards with his son.

Mark was dedicated to his career at the United States Department of Agriculture spanning 45 years and took pride in his professionalism and contributions to the agency. During his final 35 years at the agency, he rose through the ranks of the U.S.D.A. Professional Development Center in Frederick, MD where he retired as the Associate Executive Director.

Mark started with PPQ in San Juan 2 weeks ahead of me and we also worked together for 3 years at PDC. Too many memories to list them all, but one high point was the day we were out on the island for New Pest Detection and had a private tour of the Arecibo Observatory, very special!

My brother and I were inseparable when we were young children. We played Barbie/GI Joe, electric trains, created a Sunday newspaper for my parents, did coin collecting, and spent time in Coney Island (he almost drowned me once). When we were older and moved upstate in NY we still hung out a lot. We would sled down our little hill in the winter and play outside in the summer. As we got older we would watch soul train on Saturdays and even made up a dance routine that we did at a high school dance. (I know, we were geeky). As adults we didn't see each other as much but when we did it was always a great time. We lived in different states and traveled for holidays to see each other. We all will miss his quick wit and kind and generous heart. I am grateful to God that his suffering is over and that he is at peace.

I extend my deepest condolences for your loss. Although I did not have the privilege of knowing Mark personally, I understand that he was a kind and amazing individual. He had a significant impact on the lives of those around him, particularly on Amy, whom he raised with love and care. Im sure many of the amazing things about Amy were rooted from Mark and thus Mark's legacy lives on, serving as a constant reminder of the joy and love he brought into your family. During this difficult time, may his memory provide solace and comfort to all those who knew and loved him.

Mark was reMARKable. I never tired of hearing of his exploits as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Nicaragua; especially how he was rescued from the Sandinistas by his wife Antonietta and her Mother. My heart goes out to the Dagro family during this difficult time. Mark and I worked on a few projects during my time with PPQ. I always enjoyed working with him. Mark was one of those people who knew how to get to the heart of the matter to get achieve the best possible results. He also knew just how to herd the cats (AKA the vets) and get the rest of us non trainers, to focus. My condolences to his family and friends.

I want to extend our deep condolences to Cousin Amy and cousin James during this difficult time. A memory that stands out of uncle Mark is when I lived in Puerto Rico with him and Tia. An outing in old San Juan, I wanted to see over the high walls and he would pick me up and sit me at the top and reassured me I was safe. He was always kind and I hold very fond memories of him. 🙏
