We are extremely saddened at Jagirdar Saheb's demise. He was my senior colleague in Kathmandu. He was most sociable, helpful, always available for guidance whenever I or anyone else needed. He and his family drove all the way from MD to meet us in NY some years back; he was such a large-hearted friend. He was always at his jovial best. He will live in our memories forever. We pray to God for peace to his soul and for strength to his family to bear this irreparable loss. Babita and Ravi Arora

We have so many good memories of you and your family from years which cannot be erased. You were such a wonderful friend who was very kind, helpful and full of life. May your soul rest in eternal peace Jagirdar bai and send your prayers on your wife and daughter who took care of you during your final years. Will remember you in our prayers.
