In Loving Memory of Thomas "TJ" Louis Choporis

It is with Broken hearts and unbelievable sadness that we announce the passing of Thomas "TJ" Choporis, a beloved son, brother, uncle, and friend. TJ's amazing spirit departed from this world on July 15, 2023, leaving behind a void that can never be filled.

TJ brought endless joy and laughter to the lives he touched. From an early age, his energy, willingness to try new things, outgoing personality was a beacon of light to all who knew him. He possessed a rare ability to infuse any room with infectious energy. TJ's Big Blue eyes, and beautiful smile could brighten the darkest of days. He cherished his role as a Big brother to Morgan, adding Austin Dean as his little brother. Always ready to make memories with his niece Melanie, from enjoying a junk food afternoon out, to teaching her to throw and catch a football, The bond they had was strong.

He had an uncanny ability to connect with people leaving an indelible mark on everyone he encountered. His friends remember him not only for his spirit but also for the genuine kindness and empathy he extended to others. He was a storyteller at heart, regaling his friends and family with tales of his escapades, leaving them both amused and inspired. Although TJ's time with us was tragically cut short, his legacy of joy, love, and boundless enthusiasm will continue to live on in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

As we bid farewell to Thomas "TJ" Choporis, let us remember the vibrant soul who taught us to seize each moment and live life to the fullest. May his spirit inspire us to cherish our loved ones, embrace new experiences, and find joy in even the simplest of things, just as he did.

TJ is survived by his loving father William Choporis, & Mother Wendy Dean, his Sister Morgan Choporis, niece Melanie Choporis. And brother Austin Dean, Cousins, Aunts and Uncles
