In Loving Memory of Sandra Lynn Moreland

Sandra Lynn Moreland, a loving wife, mother, and grandmother, passed away on October 20, 2023, at approximately 10 pm. She was born in Collins, Georgia, on November 27, 1949, to her parents Roy Lynn and Myrtice Lynn. Sandra, affectionately known as "Sandy," led a rich and fulfilling life, leaving behind cherished memories and a lasting legacy.

Sandy pursued a diverse career, working in various roles within the banking industry and real estate, where her dedication and professionalism shone brightly. However, her most cherished role was that of a wife and mother. On February 14, 1999, she married the love of her life, Thomas E. Moreland Jr., and their union was a testament to the power of love and commitment.

Sandy found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She had a deep love for the beach, where the crashing waves and endless horizon provided solace and tranquility. Her green thumb was evident in her beautiful gardens, where she nurtured and cultivated nature's beauty. Above all, she treasured the time she spent with her family, who meant the world to her.

Sandy's faith was an integral part of her life, and she generously shared her devotion with her community. She was actively involved in various churches, dedicating her time and talents to volunteer work in various capacities. Most recently, she found fulfillment in singing in the choir at Bethany Church in Ellicott City and participating in several Bible study groups, where her spiritual journey continued to flourish.

Sandy leaves behind a loving family who will forever hold her close in their hearts. She is survived by her devoted husband, Thomas E. Moreland Jr., her daughter Pamela Mauck, and her son Randy Nelson. Pamela's husband, Christopher Mauck, and Randy's wife, Elizabeth Nelson, were not only family but also friends who shared in Sandy's love and warmth.
