Sadie Lee Cullen

NOV 7, 1936 - APR 24, 2025

Sadie Lee Cullen (Priest), 88, of Mount Airy, passed away peacefully on April 24, 2025, at home with her family by her side. She was predeceased by her husband, Lewis A. Cullen, Jr in 2016.

Born in North Carolina, she was the daughter of the late Neil Priest and Swannie Louise Priest (Grimsley). Sadie was a housewife and loved nothing more than taking care of and spending time with her family. She liked to garden and volunteered at school and church when she was younger. Sadie loved going to yard sales, flea markets and antique shops on the weekends with her husband. Or just “piddling around” as she would call it. In recent years her son, Andy, was her caregiver. He took great care of her and she loved looking at his photography of places he had been to out west and of the flowers and birds in their yard.

Sadie is survived by four children, Lewis A. Cullen, III & wife Darla, Andrew Cullen, Judith Naill

& husband Curtis, Kathleen DuBard & husband Derek; four grandchildren, Jaclyn Watts &

Kenny, Emily Deutsch & Joey, Logan Beverly, Lucas Cullen & Paige; two great grandsons,

Gavin Deutsch & Beau Watts; two great granddaughters Reese Deutsch & Lilith Cullen; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and other relatives. She is predeceased by

Barbara Beauchamp posted:

We moved across the street from Sadie & Lou Cullen in July of 1971. My first memory of her was when she came over to where I was standing and we just stood talking. She was easy to talk to and I liked her immediately. She turned out to be one of the best neighbors ever. She had a great sense of humor and I loved to hear her laugh. We didn't stay in close contact all these years but every time I talked with her it was like no time had passed. I'll miss knowing she's around but I feel blessed to have known her. We'll be neighbors again someday. Condolences to the entire family and warmest wishes to Louis, Andy, Kathy & Judy (the 'Cullen Crew').
